Centre for Koch Rajbanshi Studies and Development (CKRSD) invites print media journalists of dailies to apply for the Koch Media fellowship 2013 on “Koch Rajbanshi: Past and Present in Assam and North Bengal”. The total number of fellowship is 3 (three). The fellowship will be awarded to candidates who respect ethnic issues and nationalism and are willing to write outputs based on research and primary field studies.

The Fellowship will run for two month from October 15, 2013 to December 16, 2013. Each fellow will be provided with necessary guidance and network support by CKRSD to develop their reporting. Based on their research and primary field trip, selected fellows must produce 1) one in dept reporting (not less than 1000 word) to be carried out in the front page (page 1) and 2) A ‘simple report’ at the end of the process documenting the contacts they made and what was challenging including photographs from the field studies and other documents they have collected during their work.

Centre for Koch Rajbanshi Studies and Development (CKRSD) is a non-profit charitable organization which aims to promote and encourage research, studies of and on the Koch Rajbanshi community, their culture, history, language and society. CKRSD also aims to work and dedicate itself for the all-round development of the Koch Rajbanshi people. CKRSD's prime focus area is Koch Rajbanshi studies and their development, but its vision is to include everyone in its mission to serve these neglected people of South Asia.

Applicant should submit, 1) A cover letter 2) an outline of 200-300 words about the proposed work 3) Curriculum vitae, 4) One published work 5) Letter from editor citing that if selected applicant's work will be published. These documents must be submitted no later than October 5, 2013.

Please mail all relevant documents to kochrajbanshcentre@gmail.com. We are accepting application by email only. Kindly write "Koch Media Fellowship 2013" in the subject of the mail. Contact Number: +91 98641 39312, +91 94350 48258.
