The Opposition Asom Gana Parishad is all set to rush a delegation to the President seeking her intervention in the recent land swap deal with Bangladesh. Addressing a press conference in Guwahati on Friday, party spokesman Hitendra Nath Goswami said the party will hold a protest rally in Dispur on September 30. He said this would gherao the Sansad Bhawan in protest against the deal to swap land with the neighbouring country. He further criticized Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi for his support in this dangerous deal with Bangladesh.
