The Union Cabinet is meeting in New Delhi today where the sensational Nido Tania issue is expected to figure.

To be presided over by prime minister Dr Manmohan Singh, the meeting along with other issue is likely to discuss a new set of laws to deal with the cases of racial biasness in the capital.

The indication came up when a delegation of north east students called on Dr Singh in the capital yesterday demanding justice for the Arunachal Pradesh student who was killed by goons in south Delhi last week.
