The conscious citizens of Maibang expressed serious concern over the inattentiveness of teachers including the principal of the Maibang Degree College to their regular duties. The Maibang Degree College, only institution of higher education in the entire Sub-Division and also the dream child of the founder principal Late B. Bodo has failed to retain its popularity and name and fame, people alleged.

It is alleged that most of the teachers used to pass their whole year out of college, except head of the political science and head of English department. They come to the college once in a month and sign in their whole attendance record register. Besides, the people of Maibang get chance once or twice to see the principal of the college in two to three months. The guardians and parents of the students of Maibang Degree College while drawing the attention of the Executive Member, Dima Hasao Autonomous Council in charge, Education appealed to the authority concerned to take appropriate measures against the inattentive teachers of the Maibang Degree College so that the students are not deprived of their classes.
