Two persons sustained injury as a truck was hitting a couple before entering a primary school in Dibrugarh town on Tuesday morning. That too minutes before the students were to come out for the mid day meal.

According to information, the incident took place at around 12 noon when the truck managed to escape after leaving AGP leader Tara Buragohain and his wife injured who were riding on a scooter at the Graham Bazar area while the areas was teeming with people. Minutes after the incident, the truck entered the primary school after breaking its barbed wire fence. Over 300 children were waiting to come out for taking meal.

The driver of the truck however, managed to escape. Later the couple have been rushed to the Assam Medical College and Hospital here.
