Manas National Park, one of the largest park in the country. But the communication network with the park is very deplorable. Manas National Park has a glorious history with the legend of the Bodo-Kacharies, Naudari-Chikhla, but at present this National Park could not be able to keep its past glory properly. The Manas River which benevolently has enriched the beauty of the park seems to have secluded. Yet the people of Lower Assam take Pride for this Park. The Park will be open for tourists from November 4.
