The cultural night organized by Asom Vaisnav Samaj, Mumbai in association with Youth Club Mangaldoi, Assam at Fine Arts Society, Chembur Mumbai on 11th Feb 2012 was a grand success. The cultural night was attended by over 500 Assamese and Non-Assamese people from and around Mumbai. The audience was mesmerized by various high quality performances performed by the reknown Youth Club Mangaldoi. The program consisted of classical dances from Assam like Sattriya Nritya, Ghukha, Jhumura Nritya, Matir Aakhara, Deodhani Nritya, other Assamese creative dances including Bihu.

The occasion was graced by many dignitaries like Debashish Sarma - Deputy Resident Commissioner Mumbai, Shyam Kanu Mohanta - Deputy Commissioner Custom, etc. Program was started with a Banti Prajalar. In his welcome address, Shyama Prasad Handique, President Assam Vaishnav Samaj Mumbai, emphasized the need of a Sankardeb Madhavdeb Kala Kendra with a Naamghar in Mumbai. He also explained that such Kala Kendra would help in promoting the teaching of Mahapurush Srimanta Sankardeb and Assamese culture in Maharashtra. In addition it would act as a cohesive force of uniting all the Assamese populace in Maharashtra.

U. C. Deori, Secretary Asom Vaishav Samaj requested the Government and non-government organization to extend all possible help in building this proposed Kala Kendra in Mumbai.
