Association of Tai Ahoms (ATA), NCR is observing Me-Dam-Me-Phi to show respect to the departed ancestors and remember their contribution to society on January 27 at the Community Centre, DLF Phase I, Gurgaon. On this occasion, offerings will be made by Bailungs followed by a cultural presentation and games for children. The event will culminate with a traditional Assamese lunch. To commemorate the occasion, a magazine, “Pulin Puthao” will be released.

A committee to observe the event and to undertake other socio-cultural activities in the coming years has already been formed and the Committee is in the process of registering the Association with the relevant authorities and a formal announcement to this effect shall follow soon.
