A NABARD sponsored micro enterprise development programme is under way at Solmora village under Dhekorgorah block, Jorhat. The 10-day programme has been supported by agriculture-based NGO Pathar. As many as 30 members of established self-help groups are availing of the benefits under the programme. NABARD District Development Manager Mayur Bora said that the programme was aimed at promoting micro enterprises among SHGs in a bid to augmenting their income on a sustainable basis. The SHGs members will be trained on enterprise management, business awareness, rural market dynamics achievement motivation and accounting procedures. Branch manager of Assam Cooperative Apex Bank Pradip Bordoloi was present on the occasion.
