Two NDFB(S) militants were lynched by villagers in Sonitpur district on Wednesday.

The incident took place at Ghiladhari in the evening where the three Bodo militants arrived in the village to extort money.

Villagers in large number came out to the street and tried to capture the duo. When they tried to escape from the spot the villagers overpowered them to be lynched on the spot.

Policemen arrived in the spot and recovered the bodies.

NDFB(S) militants have been unleashing terror in the entire area in the form of killing, kidnapping and extortion forcing the local residents to mercilessly deal with it.
