

Minor girls from Assam rescued in Delhi

Comments 0

editor 27 June 2012 11419 views

Police rescued eight minor girls from placement agencies allegedly involved in human trafficking during a raid in Delhi. Altogether 4 persons, including a woman, have been arrested in this connection. The arrested have been identified as Ravinder Yadav, Pradeep Toppo, Vimal Kerketta and Babita. Acting on a tip-off police raided four placement agencies Babita Enterprises, India Maid Bureau, Deepika Placement Agency and Mission Welfare Society where the minor girls were rescued.

They were allegedly involved in trafficking of the minor girls from Assam, Jharkhand and Chhattisgarh. Out of these rescued girls, four belong to Assam, one from Chhattisgarh and three from Jharkhand. After their medical examination, the girls have been sent to Children Home for the girls at Nirmal Chhaya in Hari Nagar.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act notified

Sundaram to investigate SP EAC scuffle

Gold Rush for press club screening

Restore Chakma-Hajong rights: Civil body to government

Lafikul family unhappy with CBI for delay in probe
