A huge fund meant for uplift of the minority people went to the Centre because of some bunglings in Dispur.

The allegation came from the Rajiv Bhawan where the party's minority cell said that the central fund to the tune of Rs 137 crore remained idle during 2011-2012. The Assam Pradesh Congress Committee blames it all on a circle of bureaucrats. Addressing a press conference in Guwahati on Tuesday, APCC minority cell chairman said that they would from now on keep a watch on central and state government schemes for welfare of minorities and check utilisation of funds allocated for such purposes.
