His name is Tarun. But what he does is quite different. This was what Narendra Modi said in his scathing attack on Assam Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi in Guwahati on Saturday.

In his address at the huge rally at the Veterinary College Playground on Saturday, the Gujarat Chief Minister and BJP's prime ministerial candidate said that the chief minister's name and performance do not match.

He said that the Congress-led UPA government is at the Centre and the Congress government have been failing to deliver the goods which is why, Assam is the poorest among the north eastern state. He said that Prime Minister must answer.
