

LATEST NEWS

More machines for eviction drive

AT News · 09:04, 13 Jul 2014 · 9615 views · 1 min read

The ongoing drive to evict the illegal (/taxonomy/term/661) settlers (/taxonomy/term/1349) in the water bodies has received a major boost when the authorities have deployed more (/taxonomy/term/669) machines to demolish the concrete structures and huts on Sunday (/taxonomy/term/1006).

According to information, the additional machines have been deployed in the eviction drive on the National Highway No (/taxonomy/term/987) 37 from Jalukbari (/taxonomy/term/923) to Khanapara on Sunday (/taxonomy/term/1006).

More excavators are expected to be deployed in a day or two to dredge the Bharalu, Basistha, Bahini and Silsako rivers.

The eviction team (/taxonomy/term/688) on Friday used excavators to clear over 700 metres of drains (/taxonomy/term/1348) between the river Basistha Chariali and Koinadhara.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/more-machines-for-eviction-drive-11286> | Published: 13 July 2014 | © 2026 Assam Times