AICC general secretary Rahul Gandhi says only the infusion of fresh blood would make the Congress party more vibrant. Addressing a function at the Rajiv Bhawan on Saturday, he says the youth Congress would get more members across the country. The meeting was addressed by PCC chief Bhubneswar Kalita and Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi.

Thereafter, he left for the youth Congress summit at the Sarusajai and is scheduld to address it before leaving for new Delhi. Earlier, Gandhi arrived at the Lokpriya Gopinath Bordoloi International Airport at 8 in the morning by an Indigo flight amnd was received by Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi , APCC president Bhubneswar Kalita along with other senior party leaders. Then he left for the Hotel Brahmaputra Ashoka. After breakfast he drove to the Rabindra Bhawan and exchanged his views with the students.
