The mortal remains of Hamen SP Nityananda Goswami and his PSO consigned to flames in Guwahati on Saturday two days after the duo were killed in encounter with UPLA in Karbi Anglong.

After post mortem formalities, the lifeless duo were brought to the Fourth APBn headquarters in Guwahati where chief minister Tarun Gogoi and union home minister Kiren Rijiju paid their last respect along with other top ranked police and civil officials.

The duo were taken to the Nabagrha funeral ground for last rites with full state honour.
