Dead body of Ashim Dhar(34) who was gone missing from 4th March was recovered from Nambor Reserve Forest in a decomposed state. Mr. Dhar who was a inhabitant of Sukanjan in Karbi Anglong district, has been working in a tax consultancy firm in Golaghat town. It is to be noted that, Mr. Dhar's motorcycle was recovered by police on NH-39 near Nambor Reserve Forest area on 4th March, the same day when he went missing. Yesterday a team of forest guards searched entire forest and recovered Dhar's dead body. A mobile phone without a SIM Card and his motor cycle's key was found from his pants. The reason for this gruesome murder is still unkonown and police has already started their investigation to nab the murderers.
