The members of the Nagaon Bar Association in an extraordinary general meeting on Friday condemned the serial blast in four different places of the state by the terrorist organizations which claimed more than 80 innocent lives and causing drastic injuries to several hundreds of people, in a press release said.

Expressing shock over the security of the ordinary people's lives, several speakers vehemently condemned the role of administration and police. The meeting opined that the Assam government has failed to save lives and properties of the innocent people. The meeting urged the central Government to dismiss the Gogoi Government as soon as possible.
