Days after the Gauhati High Court identified A Kamaruddin an a Pakistani national who fought the 1996 Assembly poll has been arrested by Nagaon police on Saturday. The arrest was made after the police received instruction from Dispur. Details are awaited.

Notably, the Guwahati High Court in a recent 95 page judgment has mentioned that Mohammad Kamaruddin, a Pakistani citizen, had contested the state Assembly elections in 1996. The judgement ridiculed that that it is possible only in a place like Assam.

Since the 1970s, illegal migration has been a burning issue in the state and the government has been failing to stop it.
