

Nagaon witnessed massive turn-out at S M Road Durga Puja

Comments 0

bishwajeetsinha 17 October 2010 13465 views

The fun loving side of Nagaon residents can be witnessed at any such occasion where there is entertainment value attached within and if such a chance associated with socio-cultural and religious touch they can't be inside closed doors. The theory comes true since starting day of Dushera on Saptami evening and it continues to enthrall the local Shankar Mission Road whose 'Sarbanjanik Puja Samiti' has left no stone un-turned to make it worth visiting their Puja Pandal as memorable experience for long time.

The word of mouth affect has made a long queue to their pandal to experience the deity Durga and surrounding made of glasses only. But, besides the main Puja theme crowd has fallen in love with 40 feet height long lord Shiva statue made as main entrance. With a budget of around 7-8 lakhs, truly Nagaon is fast catching-up with its Bengal counter-parts when it comes to attract visitors with its unique Puja themes.

bishwajeetsinha

BY BISHWAJEETSINHA

Missing Silchar youth body found at Naugachia

Assamese teen body found at Naugachia in Bihar

Battle of Titans with 'Political' touch

Nagaon witnesses 'road show' at election time

Nagaon DC announces LAC election schedule

ON THIS DAY

AJYCP protests against Lower Subansiri hydropower project

School reopening in the state

UPPL ready for election

Physical assault on magistrate in Kokrajhar

Peace Conversations in Assam
