Dreaded NDFB-S militant B Bidai was believed to have a narrow escape when security forces raided a remote village in Chirang district on Sunday.

Acting on a tip off, police and CRPF jawans conducted a raid in Amlaigur village in the BTAD district where a fierce gun battle took place in the wee hours. A linkman is said to have been killed in the encounter where the most wanted militant managed to disappear from the spot.

Security forces have been cordoning off the entire area in search of the fatal militant. Police claimed to have seized some arms and ammunition from the spot.
