In a commendable initiative aimed at nurturing creativity and intellectual growth among students, the Nazira Police Station Level Citizens' Committee, in collaboration with the Nazira Model Police Station, organized an essay competition for school students within its jurisdiction.

The competition, held in three categories based on age groups, witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across several schools. It aimed to encourage young minds to think critically and express themselves through writing.

The prize distribution ceremony took place on August 3 at the Nazira Model Police Station and was graced by several dignitaries and community leaders. The winners were felicitated with certificates and prizes, recognizing their talent and effort.

Speaking on the occasion, organizers emphasized the importance of such initiatives in shaping the future of the youth and strengthening the bond between the community and the police.

The event was widely appreciated by parents, teachers, and local residents, with many praising the police and citizens' committee for their proactive role in promoting education and creativity.
