After a brief lull, suspected Naga rebels gunned down four Dimasa persons in the trouble torn North Cachar hills district on Tuesday. According to information, the incident took place at the Norman Bungalow under Mahur police station in the hills district as they were on the way to Haflong. They were killed as they were carried at a cruiser. Top ranked army, police and para military officials have rushed to the spot. A massive combing operation is on to nab the culprits involved in the gruesome incident.
