

NDFB blueprint foiled; arms ammo seized in Sonitpur

Comments 0

editor 27 August 2009 10787 views

A blueprint of a major NDFB strike was averted when Assam Rifles recovered a huge cache of arms and ammunition from Assam's Sonitpur district of Assam on Thursday morning.

According to information, the arms and ammunitions belonged NDFB's third battalion which were kept inside a trunk and was recovered by 44 and 46th Asam Rifles jawans at Ghoamara Dhekidol in Sonitpur district. These include a 27 rounds of AK-47 bullets, 5 empty cartages of point 3 NOY 3, 110 detonators, 199 wireless detonators, 3 BDFB cash memo books, 500 grams of IED palatches, 2 time watches, some batteries, 12 gelatin sticks along with 7.63 MM carbine machine gun, a 15 kg UED, 200 meter long flexible wire, , a political map.

NDFB's blueprint was perceived from the political map where Bhalukpong, Balipara, Dhekiajuli and Dekargaon were marked red as possible strike spots. The rebels of the Bodo militant out as believed to have fled from the spot before the arrival of the Assam Rifles jawans.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Goodbye, prince of melody.....

Healthcare for All: Shushrusha Setu Mega Health Camp in Nazira Constituency

BPF heading for landslide victory in BTAD

10 days training for paramilitary force

WWF India launches digital environment course for students and teachers
