The NDFB Songbijit faction denied the three cadres were surrendered before police on Thursday in Guwahati identified as Nal Kumar Narzary @ N Nimangsa(29), Hemanta Narzary @ Lambhu(32), and niran Basumatary Sumpramary @ c Nihat(37) along with arms were not their cadres. They submitted a 9 mm pistol, two .22 pistols and 3 grenades to the police.

In a press release, B R Ferengga, in charge for Education wing of NDFB said that it is just propaganda of Assam Police .They are trying to hide their weakness by compelling the common public to surrender in the name of our organization and just showing their heroism to their master Rahul Gandhi by obeying his order.

'Such policy for surrender still adopted by Khagen Sharma is very old surrender culture. Bodos have experience of revolution and bowed down to fight against India for self determination, identity, and ethnicity for about half century. Even Bodos learn the characters of revolution of freedom from the womb of boro Bima. So, this policy will do nothing affected to the revolutionary Bodo',Ferengga said.

The NDFB is born for Bodos and will do for the greater interest of the Bodos. Our war against the colonial India will continue till the last breath of Boro Fisa, because the spirits of our thousands of martyrs are always with us and inspiring the Bodos to stand for the building of the Bodo nation,he said.
