‘NDFB is not as deceitful as the terrorist putting the masks of Assam police, Military force and of Political leaders or Ministers or Members of government of India. So, we the revolutionaries, NDFB have clarified that we will have been carried out our each and every activity for the greatest interest for the building of the Sovereign Bodo Nation. Let the death of civilian Saolun Daimary bring encourages to fight and work against the colonial policy of Government of India and to unite all our Boro people as a whole’, the NDFB leader said.

He has also said, ‘We convey our deep sorrow and respect to Saolun Daimary and his all family members’. He condemning the Government of India, Assam police and all anti-Boro agents, urges cautions to avoid them from such fomenting and an inactive indictment against us and to stay away from such torturing and killing the family members of NDFB in the name of search operation.
