

NE Girls not safe in Delhi

Comments 0

Swapnil Khound 12 September 2012 10036 views

North East Girls are not safe in the capital city. A very young girl of age 16 from Assam was allegedly gang-raped by four men. These men run a placement consultancy in West Delhi; promise her to offer good job but ended with gang rape. Delhi police said that the accused cramped her in a house for days and changes to sexual assault her after pushing her to consume alcohol.

Police have caught the placement consultancy owner namely Naval Kishore and Shabina and three other Imran, Lalu and Mithun after registering a case of sexual assault, unlawful confinement and legal violence.

The victim move toward a placement agency seeking good job and met Imran there, who sent her to another placement agency in Khayala in the end of last month. On August 25, she reached and meets Kishore and Shabina, the owner of that placement consultancy, which Imraan had asked for. Soon reaching there, these two fellows instead of offering her a job, the accused had allegedly restricted her in a small room and the four men raped her time after time.

She however, managed to run away on Monday and inform the police regarding that assault and later on police sent her for a medical examination. This girl of Assam is now staying in a rehab home.

Swapnil Khound

BY SWAPNIL KHOUND

Extraordinary ID Cards to Northeast Students in Delhi

Admissions for Northeast Student in DU

OIL baggs best Exploration Production Company Award

5 years jail for North East racial insult

New cricket academy at Guwahati

ON THIS DAY

CDC of Nazira conducts inspection of Fair Price Shops

Rongmei Community Celebrates 7th Cultural and Freshers' Meet in Guwahati

Congress-AIUDF deal finalized

Manas National Park opens for visitors

Link roads inaugurated in Kapahera
