A joint delegation from Assam Association Mumbai and Manipuri Association called on joint commissioner of police in Mumbai Rajnish Sheth and Maharashtra DGP Sanjay Dayal and his additional Satyapal Singh on Wednesday and submitted a memorandum on behalf of entire north east people residing in Mumbai in the evening. Mumbai Assam Association General Secretary Dipen Rajkonwar, member Mafiul Ahmed and two more Naga and Manipuri Representative had attended the meeting.

The memorandum reads: In view of the large scale migration of people of North East origin from Mumbai, Pune, Karjat, Nashik and other places in Maharashtra, we tried to persuade people not to go back to their native homes. However our assurances could not allay their apprehensions about their safety. Hence, we request you to implement some effective measures to assure them about their safety. We would request the Maharashtra police to strengthen security measures at Bus stands, market places, Railway stations, student hostels and campuses. We also assure you of our whole hearted co-operation, if required, in implementing such measures.
