NorthEast United finally played draw with Delhi Dynamo. With this, NorthEast also maintained their third spot with eight points from five games. Now Delhi Dynamos remained on fourth in the league standings with six points from four matches.

Goalkeeper T P Rehenesh made three saves to prevent Delhi Dynamos to score goals before the two sides settled for a goal-less draw at the Hero Indian Super League match in Delhi on Wednesday.

The 21-year-old promising goal keeper denied Delhi captain Alessandro del Piero in his first goal of the ISL in the 39th minute . The Kerala player then made diving saves to deny Delhi striker Hans Mulder twice – in the 87th and 90th minutes.

Without Joan Capdevila and Koke the match was evenly contested with the biggest crowd turning up at the Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium. The duo did not play because of injuries.
