Following the dissolution of the former committee of the Nazira Press Club—an institution established back in 1992—a new executive body was formed on March 15. The newly elected committee officially assumed their responsibilities.

The handover ceremony was held under the presidency of outgoing President Bulu Chetia. The event was attended by the newly elected President Bhaskarjyoti Borgohain, General Secretary Nava Burhagohain, along with other key office-bearers and senior journalists.

During the meeting, there were discussions on the issue of journalist harassment and safety, as well as deliberations on the club's future plans and strategic direction. Various speakers shared their views and suggestions regarding the roadmap ahead for the Nazira Press Club.
