New Delhi: UP police have caught 13 people from Assam in Moradabad who were hiding at a local mosque.

According to information, police tracked down all these 13 people from Assam at a mosque in Barwalan area on Wednesday.

According to SP in Moradabad Amit Kumar Anand, they have been shifted to quarantine for treatment.

This was revealed hours after health minister confirmed 16 COVID 19 cases in the state. They are from Jagiroad, Galaghat, Nalbari and Goalpara.
