BJP leaders of BTAD region has ruled out pre poll alliance with BPF party ensuing assembly election and expressed their willingness to contest with own candidates.

On the other hand,BPF has also expresses their desire to step alone with their own candidates which will pave way to win majority seats in the BTAD region LACs.

Former BTC executive member and BJP leader of BTAD region Mono Kumar Brahma, while exclusively talking this correspondent told that no any alliance words are reached so far from the party itself and the party has been prepared their mass based in the region and public are supporting party to pave way more development and unity.He has alleged that words relating to alliance in between BJP and BPF are getting good sign,was only fabricated by BTC chief Hagrama Mohilary to gain their party publicity.

He said, 'You know, Mohilary has now becoming a word keeper, who forget the morning word in the evening and he also keep unwanted words in his daily leading living'.

Brahma also said that his party will put candidates in all seats of the council region and large number seats would be won by saffron party without any hesitation.

Former Assam minister, MLA and BPF vice president Pramila Rani Brahma said that her party is contesting the assembly election alone with their own candidates. There would be no any pre poll alliance with any party in the region and party had recently declared its 14 names of candidates to contest election. BPF party has so far completed party preparation and mass supports in all the LACs are showing good sign. She has expressed her hopeful that party will get majority winning in the election.
