

No dearth of relief materials: PM

Comments 0

editor 3 July 2012 10780 views

Prime Minister Dr Manmohan Singh said that there is no dearth of materials to provide relief for the flood affected areas. Addressing a group of senior journalists at the Lokpriya Gopinath Bordoloi International Airport on Monday, he said that the Air Force have lifted 20 tonnes of relief material for the marooned people. He said 4.84 lakh people have taken shelter in the 768 relief camps set up across the state. According to him, 16 teams of the National Disaster Response Force comprising 640 personnel and 71 boats have been pressed into service for carrying out relief and rescue operations.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Goodbye, prince of melody.....

Healthcare for All: Shushrusha Setu Mega Health Camp in Nazira Constituency

BPF heading for landslide victory in BTAD

10 days training for paramilitary force

WWF India launches digital environment course for students and teachers
