No instruction for CLP meet Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi's dissident colleagues are gearing up for the upcoming Congress legislative body meeting in Dispur.

A circle of ministers and MLAs want change in leadership. They are preparing to formally raise the issue to dislodge Gogoi.

But top sources told Assam Times that the high command has not asked the chief ministers to hold CLP meet to ensure trust of all legislators. Sonia Gandhi has already asked to continue his office.

According to AICC sources, Gogoi would discuss the massive reshuffle of the council of ministers after his return from New Delhi on Thursday.
