Three Cotton College students have been remaining traceless for the last 24 hours striking no less sensation in the premier seat of learning in the north eastern region.

Identified as Wahidur Rahman, Tonmoy Kathar and Partha Mali, the higher secondary students suddenly vanished from the college campus on Thursday.

Their mobile numbers phones are either not reachable or remaining switched off forcing their parents to file a complaint before the police.

Investigations are going to ascertain their whereabouts. The policemen probing the complaint are tightlipped on the progress.
