

Normalcy back in B'lore: K'taka CM

Comments 0

editor 19 August 2012 7550 views

Karnataka chief minister Jagadish Shettar claimed on Saturday that normalcy is back to Bangalore. He expressed confidence that the north east people would soon be back in the city. He said that some rumours have forced the north east people to leave Bangalore and that not one untoward incident has taken place in Bangalore. But five persons have been arrested by the police. The Karnataka chief minister also said ministers from northeastern states had inspected the steps taken by his government and had expressed satisfaction.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

BJP leader likely to surrender

Congress demands CM's resignation

Durga puja ends in Kokrajhar

Award for BVFCL Daily Bazaar Puja

Dalai Lama to visit Manipur on October 17
