NorthEast United FC are rolling up sleeves to take tightly on FC Pune City in the second season of the Indian Super League (ISL) in Pune on Friday. The guests are trying their best to refurbish their 3-1 defeat image at the hands of Kerala Blasters FC. The players are not in a mood to let any chance go in vain on Friday when they will be taking on the host team at the Balewadi Stadium at 7 in the evening.

The Pune FC are exuding confidence after the winning start over Mumbai City FC at the ISL Match 3 on Monday. The home team pin hopes on Tuncay Sanli apart from Israil Gurung who stole no less limelight in the Monday match. Similarly, Simao Sabrosa is expected to steal the march for the Northeast United FC. The former Portuguese player is still the marquee player for the highlanders.
