HOJAI: The Hojai district administration has urged the citizens to remain calm on Sunday when the authorities would publish the first part of the NRC draft.

Addressing an awareness meeting in the headquarter town on Friday, DC MP Singh said if one does not find out one's there is nothing to be worried. These would enlisted in the next phase.

Singh, flanked by SP and Circle Officer said no genuine Indian citizen would be kept out in the updated NRC and that the print outs would be available in the seva kendras from Monday morning.
