In line with the global initiative, NTPC Bongaigaon Salakati actively participated in celebrating World Earth Day today by organizing a tree plantation drive within its plant premises. Demonstrating their commitment to a sustainable future, over 50 saplings of various kinds were planted by the company officials and staff.

The plantation program was spearheaded by the senior management of NTPC Bongaigaon Salakati, led by K C Muraleedharan, CGM and Business Unit Head. Mr. Muraleedharan emphasized NTPC's group-wide efforts in tackling climate change by inspiring positive action from governments, businesses, and individual citizens. He also highlighted the specific initiatives undertaken by NTPC Bongaigaon Salakati to create a healthier environment for all its stakeholders.

Induri S Reddy, GM (O&M), Asutosh Biswas, GM (Operations), along with Somnath Bhattacharya, AGM (BE and In-charge EMG and Ash Utilization), and Heads of Departments actively participated in the program alongside employees. This collaborative effort signifies the company's dedication towards environmental responsibility.

This tree plantation drive by NTPC Bongaigaon Salakati serves as a commendable step towards promoting a greener future and combating the challenges of climate change.
