A state government officer has been working at Barpeta in eight important posts of education department. It is also alleged that due to this many discrepancies being noticed in those departments. According to report, before the Lok sabha election notification, one officer named Anjali Dutta joined as Asstt. IS (Inspector of schools) at Barpeta. But surprisingly she had taken the charge of seven other responsible posts. At present Dutta has been working as Asstt IS, Barpeta; District Mission Co-ordinator, Sarba Xiksha Mission; I/c-Barpeta District DEEO; I/C- Asstt. IS, Bajali Subdivision; I/C- Block Mission coordinator, Bajali Subdivision; Headmaster, I/c, Nehru Highschool, Barpeta; Headmaster, I/C, Kurobaha Highschool, Bajali. This arrangement has been creating difficulties junior officers in all these departments when it comes to meet the officer. Teachers and pensioners have to face great difficulties. According to report said that as per the order AAP(MISB/11/2000/16) no government officers are allowed to work in more than one post, whether it is full-time or part-time. According to that rule the said officer is not suppose to serve at so many posts at one time.
