At least 175 students fell ill after they consumed meal served in school in Dibrugarh district on Monday. The incident took place at No 3 Line LP School in Borbaruah Tea Estate at around 1PM after they consumed mid day meal provided by the school. According to information, half an hour after after they consumed the meal the students, mostly complained stomach pain, some others started vomiting inside the classrooms while a few of them fell unconscious. Local residents rushed these students to the nearest hospital while 5 of them have been shifted to the AMCH where they are battling for life. Meanwhile, the district administration has ordered an enquiry into it. The school authorities are clueless on the incident. Police have registered a case before arresting the school teachers and the cook.
