

Parliamentary standing committee visits flood eroded area in Barpeta district

Comments 0

Juthika Das 5 February 2009 9358 views

A parliamentary standing committee team consisting of 9 people including MPs both Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha visited flood eroded area of Bahari area of Barpeta District recently. The team after visiting the area said to news persons that to solve such a problem only 6 or 7 crore amount is not sufficient. For it a huge amount of money is needed. These team were also shown slides about the erosion of the mighty river Brahmaputra by the chief engineer of the Water Resource Dept. In this team R. Sambasiva Rao, MP, Chairman of the standing committee; Shankhlal Majhi, MP; Harilal M. Patel, MP; Arun Kr. Sarmah, MP; Kumar Deepak Das, MP (Rajya Sabha); Sanjeev Sarma, Deputy Secy.; Sushil Kumar, Senior private Secy.; A.K. Yadav, Committee officer; Nitin Gupta, Liaison officer etc came. Along with them Phanidhar Kalita, DC Barpeta also visited Bahari flood eroded area. The standing committee members will report about this flood erosion problem of Bahari area in the central govt. Mentionable that so many villages of that area eroded by the mighty river Brahmaputra and hundreds of people became homeless time to time.

Juthika Das

Journalist from Barpeta.

BY JUTHIKA DAS

Assamese prof to speak on Slow Loris at Intl conference

Save rhino campaign on bicycle

50 taken ill for vaccination

Freedom fighter Radhakanta Talukdar no more

Manas national Park opened for the tourists

ON THIS DAY

Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act notified

Sundaram to investigate SP EAC scuffle

Gold Rush for press club screening

Restore Chakma-Hajong rights: Civil body to government

Lafikul family unhappy with CBI for delay in probe
