Guwahati: The All India United Democratic Front has stood by Aminul Islam after a lower court in Nagaon jailed the party from Dhing on Tuesday.

Talking to media state party president Champak Kalita said that the party will challenge Islam's judicial custody in the appropriate court of law.

Kalita said that Islam had done no wrong and only what he said was his only apprehension and that he was arrested only because of an opposition party MLA who has been critical of the government for its many anti people policies.

Islam was arrested after interrogation by police charging him with spreading rumour on the quarantine of some people apprehending COVID19 infection.
