Peace negotiator and writer Mamoni Roisom Goswami is hopeful of reviving the peace process while she called on Assam Governor Lt General (Retd) Ajoy Kumar Singh on Tuesday evening. Talking to reporters after the meeting at the Rajbhawan, she said the governor has assured her of his help revive the process which was caught in the deadlock.

“Both we discussed the sovereignty issue as ULFA has been insisting on it. He said he will take up the matter with the Centre,” she said.

She also told the reporters that she would soon meet Assam Chief Minister to convey ULFA’s willingness to sit in negotiation and would seek his help carry forward the peace bid.

Notably, recently ULFA chief Paresh Baruah expressed his outfit’s willingness to talk to the Centre when she talked to her over telephone.
