The Indo-Global Social Service (IGSSS) carried out a peace rally in Kokrajhar town on Wednesday for world peace.

More than 50 women from Kokrajhar and Chirang participated in the rally when it started from JD Road to Cirucit House.

Talking to Assam Times, organizers said the rally was a part of post observation International Peace Day to promote peace in the region, to make people aware about peace, mitigate violence and promote peace among all communities.

The peace action project presently covered 65 villages in Karbi Anglong and BTAD districts. The thrust and focus of the project is on women centric role in peace building, conflict resolution to further sustainable peace and development in the region.
