Guwahati: Yet another regional party will surface in the state's pre poll political landscape. Spade works are gathering steam in the nook and corner of the poll bound state. The party will be named once Akhil Gogoi is released from the jail.

Announcing this on Saturday, the Akhil Gogoi-led KMSS leaders said the party would be a regional one and would try to beat BJP in the 2021 assembly polls.

The influential peasant body will field a number of candidates in the assembly polls which include Akhil Gogoi himself who might contest from Sivasagar.

But the organization which will turn into a political force has not disclosed whether they would be part of the Congress-led grand opposition alliance.
