Police on Tuesday arrested Gargaram Pegu a day after the Mising autonomous council principal secretary was detained for possession of Rs 16 lakh in cash. Police interrogation is in progress. In yet another development, plains tribes development minister Pramila Rani Brahma said the government ordered probe into it after she drew flak from the opposition AGP. But it failed to assuage the AGP who demanded her resignation. Amid an acrimonious scene, the AGP MLAs walked out of the House. Notably, sources, a team of CID rounded up him on Monday afternoon in Mongoldoi on his way to Guwahati. A bag containing Rs 16.5 lakh was recovered from his possession.
