Assam Photo Journalists Association is organizing a day long photography workshop for school children on August 19 to mark the World Photography Day and also to increase the interest of photography in the young students at the Guwahati Press Club premises from 10.00 am.

Interested students are requested to reach the Press Club by 9.00 and register their names on the said day in the Press Club Premises, due to paucity of space a maximum of 50 students will be accommodated on the basis of first come first serve.

Those students who have some experience of photography can also bring their photographs taken earlier for sharing with other students.

For any queries please contact Anupam Nath- 9435014041 and Rajib Bhattacharjee- 9435010559.
