Dima Hasao police are still clueless on the video hall shoot out incident where a child was killed and another sustained injury on Tuesday night. Police suspect the involvement of militants. But the police officials probing the case are believed to have been gathering some stunning revelations.

“We are investigating the case and it has reached a crucial state and that’s why, it would be proper for us to reveal the findings at this stage,” a police officer told Assam Times.

“We hope to arrest the culprits within the next few hours,” he said.

According to Dima Hasao SP G.V. Sivaprasad, preliminary investigations revealed that three gunmen came to a video hall at around 8pm in seeking Ziaur Rahman who owns the hall.

When they didn't find the owner, they started indiscriminate firing at the audience where Maruf Ahmed died on the spot and 10-year-old Bishen Tamang sustained injury.

GUWAHATI, October 1, 2026 — The Department of Applied Biology, University of Science & Technology Meghalaya (USTM), in association with the Microbiologists Society, India (MBSI) and the Federation of European Microbiological Societies (FEMS), concluded International Microorganisms Day 2026 and a national workshop on “Academic Writing and Scholarly Publications” on Thursday.

The programme, held from September 17, focused on strengthening academic writing, research communication and scholarly publishing skills among Master's students, research scholars and early-career researchers.

USTM Vice Chancellor Prof G D Sharma inaugurated the programme. Prof Kumananda Tayung, Dean, Faculty of Sciences, Gauhati University, and Dr Niraj Singh, State President, MBSI (Assam & Meghalaya), attended as Chief Guest-cum-Resource Person and Guest of Honour respectively.

Experts from India and Saudi Arabia conducted sessions on scientific writing, manuscript preparation, publication ethics, scholarly communication and journal selection. Participants from USTM, The Assam Royal Global University and Cotton University attended the programme.

A Poster and Model Competition was also organised, with prizes distributed to the winners.

The programme was organised under the chairpersonship of Dr Sony Kumari, Head, Department of Applied Biology, with Dr Yugal Kishore Mohanta as Convener and Dr Tamanna Bhuyan as coordinator.
