Assam Police constable Abhijit Baruah on Tuesday officially entered in the Guinness World Records as the longest barefoot runner three months after he ran 156.2 km in 24 hours.

The 20 year old Baruah, who hails from Jorhat scripted the history on January 30 this year when he started his run at 3.56 p.m. and ended it at 3.56 p.m. the following day. On May 28 last year, Abhijit -- also a black belt in karate and kickboxing -- had run 150 km in 26 hours and 31 minutes and entered his name in the Limca Book of Records. The Assam government announced an award of Rs.2 lakh to Abhijit, and the cheque for the amount was handed over to him by Congress MLA from Jorhat constituency Rana Goswami Tuesday.
